School Games Day

School Games Day went well on Wednesday. In the morning, Sapphire and Emerald class completed a carousel of activities followed by races on the recreation ground. In the afternoon, Pearl and Ruby class took part in a carousel of activities, finishing with an obstacle race.

We are unable to announce the winning house at present, this will be done by the House Captains in the next Friday celebration assembly.

Musical Cabaret

The school hall was transformed into a recording studio on Tuesday afternoon in order to capture the musical talents of our children.

All the children played brilliantly and supported each other during the filming, which will be available for parents/carers to purchase.

Special thanks goes to Mrs Sue Whitehead, our music teacher, who organised the whole event.

Despite the disruptive year we've had, the children proved that their progress and enjoyment for music continued.

Sapphire Class Trip

Last Wednesday Sapphire Class went on a trip to the Weald & Downland Living Museum to see a snapshot of what life was like in Tudor and Elizabethan England.

During the day the children took part in a Tudor Games workshop which they all really enjoyed.

Alfriston Playground Renovation Project

Thank you to everyone who completed the questionnaire about the village playground. People most commonly rated the equipment surfacing, safety and maintenance as poor, and 94% of people would use the playground more if it were improved. Most people would like a wooden playground, and the most popular equipment was a play fort/multi play unit with multiple ways for children to get up, down and along. Playground companies are working on proposals over the summer, and these will then be shared with the community for feedback.

The Friends of Alfriston Playground are looking for people to help with the project and fundraising. Please email: friendsofalfristonplayground@gmail.com for a full copy of the questionnaire findings, or to get involved and work together to make a better and safer playground.
